OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Monday - 8 January 1962

1. (Unclassified - JGO) Contacted Miss Mary Sabin, Bureau of the Budget, concerning the status of the proposed Agency report and comments of 6 December 1961 on H. R. 8209, relating to employment of experts and consultants. Miss Sabin indicated that she is awaiting return of the Bureau's proposed reply to the various agencies that have submitted comments. She does not believe the matter will be delayed much longer.

2. (Internal Use Only - JSW) Talked with Cliff Carter in the office of the Vice President advising him that as a result of studying the materials and capabilities offered by [ ] referred by the Vice President's office, we had come to the conclusion that he had nothing to offer us. I advised Carter we were going to so advise [ ] in a polite way. Carter was glad to have this information indicating that through powerful connections [ ] had come to their attention.

5. (Internal Use Only - GLC) Mrs. Jessup, in the office of Representative Edwin B. Dooley (R., N. Y.), called and said she had been referred to us by the State Department. Mrs. Jessup desired information on Communism in the UN. State Department told her to call [ ] who had been transferred from the Department to our Biographic unit. It was determined that the only work [ ] had done on this subject involved personalities in the UN Secretariat and this was only part of an overall project carried out by other State Department offices. After checking with State Department Legislative Liaison, Mrs. Jessup was put in direct contact with the UN Political Desk of State Department.
